December 11, 1970

Hon. Bernard A. Gesell
U. S. District Judge
U. S. Court House
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Judge Gesell,

Your decision in Civil Action No. 70-40, in which I am the plaintiff, did not reach me until today, having been incorrectly addressed by Mr. Wirtz.

If the language "no showing that defendants have failed to comply with any court order" refers to defendants' statement that no affidavit was filed, I did file such an affidavit as soon as I could after receiving the papers containing that allegation.

I had not been informed this had been assigned to you. Therefore, when the clerk asked the name of the judge at 2, I gave that of Judge Curran. This may or may not have delayed the routing of the affidavit until after your decision was filed.

With all due respect, sir, as of today - have not received all of what was ordered delivered to me, nor has there been response to letters of request in one case - after the issuance of the order.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg